

MEDIA RELEASE

April 21, 2005

NGR OFFERS ADDITIONAL SERVICES TO REGISTERED PARTIES

Over the past two years NGR has built up the largest database of grain growers available in Australia – over 45,000 and still growing.

As part of the forward thinking strategy of NGR, we are now offering the provision of the additional services of mail outs to key customer groups for all key agribusiness players.

NGR is able to tailor this service to the needs of all agribusiness entities whether they are large or small.

NGR provides a range of leading-edge services in the telephone, fax, mail, internet and call centre areas. Our particular and often unique skill lies in our ability to combine and customise these technologies into individual customer solutions for the agribusiness sector.

These technologies provide significant opportunities for rural input suppliers and service providers to communicate with NGR's large rural grower base for the mutual benefit of both growers and the wide range of businesses within the agribusiness sector.

For a confidential discussion on how NGR can assist your business, please contact the NGR Call Centre on 1800 556 630.
